Description: ff. iii + ii + i + 291 + iii - Bound by Gruel in red morocco, the doublures inlaid with the covers of an eighteenth century armorial calf binding. - Written in Flanders, dated 1478 on f. 284v, and perhaps meant for export to England, given the English saints in the calendar; the office of the dead may also have been intended to follow the Sarum liturgical use. Added in a space in the calendar, f. 5, s. XVIII, "Ad numeros libris Christiani Geller Parochi in Lebach" (in the Saarland). Arms, s.
